Concordia University-Portland is more than a university. We are a community of passionate, courageous individuals, inspired to work together to create real change. Guided by Lutheran values and principles, our students learn to think critically and seek solutions to problems that matter.

Student Housing
From traditional dorms to modern apartments, our six campus residence halls are designed to make you feel right at home. Beds, desks, and dressers? Check. Microwave, refrigerator/freezer, and on-site laundry facilities? Check. Plus free in-room internet, hall lounges, and a restaurant-style dining hall just steps away. It’s no wonder residents tell us that these are some of the best student housing options in the Northwest.
